

A graduate of the Bordeaux Institute of Political Studies and the Bordeaux Montesquieu Faculty of Law, Chantal Bécot specialized very early in the field of local economic development. After having held different positions in several local authorities, since 2016 she has been responsible for the Local Economy Mission of Bordeaux Métropole and the City of Bordeaux. In this capacity, Chantal Bécot manages action plans relating to commerce, crafts and independent professions which represent 80% of businesses in the Bordeaux region.

---

A graduate of the Bordeaux Institute of Political Studies and the Bordeaux Montesquieu Faculty of Law, Chantal Bécot specialized very early in the field of local economic development. After having held different positions in several local authorities, since 2016 she has been responsible for the Local Economy Mission of Bordeaux Métropole and the City of Bordeaux. In this capacity, Chantal Bécot manages action plans relating to commerce, crafts and independent professions which represent 80% of businesses in the Bordeaux region.